Numb. 9348.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday February 19, to Saturday February 23, 1754.

Genoa, January 30.

THE Marquefs de Grimaldi, the Republick's Commiſſary General in Corſica, has inform'd the Government, that the Malecontents in that Iſland obſtinately perſiſt in their Reſolution of harkening to no Terms of Accommodation whatſoever, till the Murderers of their late Chief Gaffori are delivered into their Hands: Theſe they alledge have taken Shelter at Calvi, and in ſome other Places of the Dominions of the Republick.

Stockholm, Feb. 1. The Seaſon is very ſevere in this Country: So much Froſt and Snow have not been known for ſome Years. 'Tis thought that this Severity of the Weather has brought on a Kind of Spotted Fever, which now rages in one of the Quarters of this City, and has carried off ſeven or eight Perſons in a Houſe. On Saturday laſt died the Senator Count Poſſe; and we hear that Baron Sparre, General of Foot, and Knight of the Order of the Seraphins, and of that of the North Star, died a few Days ago at his Seat at Giockſholm, in the Province of Nerricie.

Madrid, Feb. 4. The Operas, as well as the other Diverſions of the Carnaval, have been interrupted by the Queen's having been indiſpoſed for this Week paſt with a violent Cold; but her Majeſty is To-day much better. From Barcelona we have Advice, that the French are equipping at Toulon ten Men of War and three Bomb-ketches, in order to revenge themſelves upon the Algerines for their late Behaviour to the French Flag. The laſt Letters from Malaga mention a moſt violent Storm, which it was feared had done great Damage upon that Coaſt. Four Ships, which lay in the Road Wind-bound, were driven from their Anchors and ſtranded within a Mile of the Town, but by timely Aſſiſtance all their Crews were ſaved. The Wind continued blowing very hard when the Letters came away.

Vienna, Feb. 9. 'Tis reported that a Camp of 35 or 40000 Men will be formed in Bohemia in the Spring, and that they are ſhortly to begin furniſhing the neceſſary Magazines for that Purpoſe. Field Marſhal Count Schulenbourg, who lay at the Point of Death, is now ſomewhat better. The Hereditary Prince of Modena returned here on Saturday laſt from Dreſden.

Berlin, Feb. 12. The Diſtemper amongſt the Horned Cattle is broke out again in the Old Marck, and all the neceſſary Precautions are taking to prevent its ſpreading itſelf into any of the neighbouring Provinces.

Manheim, Feb. 13. For ſeveral Days together a Report prevailed here, and in all the Towns round about, that an Epidemical Diſtemper was broke out in the Circle of Leutmeritz in Bohemia, which 'twas ſaid carried off great Numbers of People; but we are inform'd, by good Authority, that there was not the leaſt Foundation for any ſuch Report.

Admiralty Office, Feb. 22, 1754.

PUrſuant to an Act of Parliament of the 26th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, That Information has been ſent to this Office, that a Ship called the Clifton of Briſtol, James Malone, Maſter, laden with Raiſons, bound from Malaga to Briſtol, was, on the 14th Inſtant, beat to Pieces by ſtriking on the Rocks, between Ogmore River, and Down Raven, about twenty Miles to the Eaſtward of Swanzey in South-Wales.

J. Cleveland.

Admiralty-Office, February 23, 1754.

PUrſuant to an Act of Parliament of the 26th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information has been ſent to this Office, that a French Brigantine called the Brave Marlborough, of Le Flotte, Peter Hoin, Maſter, Burthen about Seventy Tons, Laden with Wine, Brandy, Vinegar, and other Liquors, for Dunkirk, was drove, by Streſs of Weather, to the Iſle of Portland, where being embayed, the Weather ſtormy and foggy, the Sea running very high, and the Ship very leaky, they anchored; but driving near the Shore, the Maſter and Crew took to their Boat, and left her to her Anchor, and were all drowned in getting aſhore except one Man, named Iſaac Bruſſoe: That the ſaid Veſſel was afterwards boarded by ſome Men ſent to her by the Collector of Lyme Regis, and finding no Perſon on board, and the Veſſel in great Danger, they carried her into Lyme Cobb, where ſhe now lies ſecurely moored.

OF THE

SUPPLEMENT

TO THE

New and Universal Dictionary

OF

ARTS and SCIENCES.

Illustrated with above THIRTY COPPER-PLATES, engraved by the best Hands from Original Designs; which will be given gratis.

N. B. This Volume will render the Dictionary complete, and contain, among the other Branches of Learning, a complete System of Mechanics, Manual Arts and Manufactures; which, though so eminently useful to Society, and so long desired, has never before been attempted in the English Language.

Subscriptions are taken in by J. Hinton, at the King's Arms in Newgate Street, London; by the Booksellers of the two Universities of Oxford and Cambridge; and by the Printers and Booksellers of all the Cities and noted Towns of Great Britain and Ireland.

 Those Persons who have not yet taken in the Dictionary, may begin with N° I. and proceed gradually to the End.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurisies, Quinsies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-against the North Door of the Church, at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again; and by James Esdall, Printer, on the Blind Quay, Dublin.

* See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Place above-mentioned. Price 6 d.
